ConsuMiami 2011

Consumer Fair at Miami City Hall Celebrates World Consumer Day

(Miami, FL March 29, 2011)—City of Miami Mayor Tomas Regalado and Mercado de Dinero, an international publication for the consumer, host ConsuMiami 2011, a Consumer Fair celebrating World Consumer Day, Wednesday, March 30, 2011, 4pm – 7pm, at Miami City Hall, 3500 Pan American Drive.

Mayor Regalado will be on hand to do the welcoming remarks to the participants to the event and to introduce Mr. Luis Pineda Salido, President of Ausbanc (Association of Users of Bank Services) and editor general of the Ausbanc International editorial group in Spain, U. S. A., United Kingdom, Colombia, Venezuela, and online in Mexico and Argentina.

Under the theme “The consumer is a key component to the economic recovery,” ConsuMiami 2011 has put together a group of workshops and networking on assistance and orientation for the consumer directly. The public is invited to participate in the open and free workshops by Miami Dade College, the Department of Financial Services of Florida, the Department of Consumer Services of Miami Dade, the Senior Medicare Patrol Program and the Latin Chamber of Commerce, CAMACOL.

There will be exhibits providing information on the current mortgage market situation, legal resources available, the rights of the consumer, where to file a claim, financial assistance for low income students, steps for safe banking transactions, assistance to small and medium businesses, etc.

For more information please contact Mercado de Dinero, at (305) 371-5348, (305) 375-0898 or, www.mercadodedinero.com
