City of Miami Community Education Tour

Mayor Tomas Regalado, City Commissioners, Miami Dade County Schools Superintendent Alberto Carvalho and Community Leaders Visit Three Most Improved Miami Dade County Public Schools in the City of Miami

(Miami, FL March 30, 2011)—City of Miami Mayor Tomas Regalado, along with City Commissioners, Miami Dade County Public Schools Superintendent Alberto Carvalho, and other community stakeholders will be participating in the City of Miami Community Education Tour organized by Miami Dade County Public Schools, Thursday, March 31, 2011. The tour will be departing from Miami City Hall, 3500 Pan American Drive, at 9:00am.

Before departure, Mayor Regalado and Superintendent Carvalho will welcome and share some words with guests in City Commission Chambers. During the tour, information about each school will be narrated through the bus audio system and participants will have the opportunity to bring up their questions and insights. Guests will tour the schools and do a walkthrough of classrooms.

Because they have shown great performance improvement, the three City of Miami public schools selected on this tour are:

- Coral Way K-8 Center, 1950 SW 13th Avenue, Miami, FL 33145
- Jesse J. McCrary, Jr. Elementary School, 514 NW 77th Street, Miami FL 33150
- Miami Edison Sr. High School, 6161 NW 5th Court, Miami FL 33127

“This tour will help us look at the rewards, the challenges and the innovations of public education in our community,” expressed Mayor Regalado. “We need to strengthen the collaboration between government and the school system on behalf of our students.”
