The Mini FLOW Licensing Unit from the Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV) Will Visit Miami City Hall for Driver License Renewal and other Services

(Miami, FL January 19, 2011)—On Wednesday, January 26, 2011, the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV) will bring a Mini-FLOW licensing unit to Miami City Hall. Anyone wishing to renew their driver licenses, make a change of address, etc., as well as, get a state of Florida Identification Card can come, with proper documentation, to 3500 Pan American Drive, between the hours of 9am – 3pm.

Since January 1, 2010, the state of Florida requires that anyone wishing to obtain a new or renew a driver license or identification card, legally change their name prior to their renewal date, or immediately replace a lost or stolen license or ID card, must come prepared with the proper documentation. The complete list of acceptable documents is available online at www.GatherGoGet.com. Here is a summary of the requirements:

- 1) Identification – A certified U.S. birth certificate; a valid U.S. passport; a consular Report of Birth Abroad; a certificate of Naturalization (Form N-550 or N-570); or a certificate of Citizenship (Form N-560 or N-561).
- 2) Social Security Number – Card, W-2 form, any 1099 form or paycheck stub.
- 3) Residential Address – Two (2) items mailed to you that contain your address. Acceptable is a mortgage statement, voter ID card, a utility bill or a car insurance policy, among many others.

Anyone who has changed their name must bring marriage certificates, court orders or divorce decrees to connect the name on the primary identification to the name of the customer and the name in which the license or ID card will be issued.

U.S. citizens, permanent residents, immigrants and non-immigrants can secure a complete list of documents to bring to one of our offices by visiting www.GatherGoGet.com, or www.ReunaVenqaObtenga.com in Spanish, or www.RasanbleAlePran.com in Creole.
