Mayor Regalado and The Miami Police Athletic League Host The First Mayor's Ball

(Miami, FL January 28, 2011)— In a continuing effort to aid benevolent causes, Miami Mayor Tomas P. Regalado will hold his first Mayor's Ball on Saturday, January 29, 2011 at the InterContinental Hotel, 100 Chopin Plaza, from 7:30pm to 11:00pm. 100% of proceeds will benefit the Miami Police Athletic League (PAL).

Mayor Regalado and sponsors have come together to make it possible for the reopening of the Miami PAL Boxing Gym in the City of Miami as well as naming Miami PAL's Signature Park.

The Miami Police Athletic League, Inc. (Miami PAL) is a 501(c) 3 charitable organization which relies on the generosity of extraordinary citizens and corporations, to provide resources that will keep inner-city under-represented youth, active, productive, and safe. The mission of Miami PAL is to enhance the relationship between the City of Miami Police Department, and underprivileged minority youth; through positive interactions and mentoring. The intention is to prevent juvenile delinquency through the avenues of academics, athletics, and activities.

All tickets for the ball are $100.00 per person and $900.00 per table of ten. Sponsorship packages are available. For further information visit www.palmiami.com or www.miamigov.com. For additional information please call the City Miami Police Community Relations Section at (305) 603-6095.
