Free Screening of the Classic Film “Casablanca” At Miami City Hall February 4

-A special pre-Valentine’s Day Movie Night-

(Miami, FL) – January 25, 2011 – Miami Commissioner Marc D. Sarnoff invites you to a very special Movie Night screening of the classic film “Casablanca,” on Friday, February 4th at 6:30 p.m., inside Miami City Hall.

“Casablanca” is an American classic, a romantic drama set during World War II and starring Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman as lovers torn between passion and duty. This pre-Valentine’s Day screening is free and open to the public. Free popcorn will be served throughout the evening.

The film is part of the Movie Night series regularly hosted by Commissioner Sarnoff, who encourages residents of Miami to come down to City Hall and meet him and other elected officials.

For more information about the Movie Night series please contact William Plasencia at wplasencia@miamigov.com or (305) 250-5331 you can also visit www.miamigov.com/district2
