The 2nd Mayor's CAREER EXPO Comes to Miami City Hall

(Miami, FL May 26, 2010)—Under the theme, DISCOVER...CONNECT...GROW, City of Miami Mayor Tomas Regalado will celebrate the 2nd Mayor's Career Expo at Miami City Hall, 3500 Pan American Drive, on Thursday, June 3rd, 2010, from 10:00am – 3:00pm. Career Expo is free and open to the public.

In order to help many of the citizens presently looking for jobs, Career Expo aims to connect those seeking employment with potential recruiters. At the same time, participants can take advantage of a one stop resource day with the additional assistance of industry specific workshops, onsite interviews, networking and sales training seminars.

“Career Expo will give our citizens the opportunity to explore new career prospects and meet local employers,” explained Mayor Regalado. “By providing these resources, we’ll help them take control of their future.”

Among the companies which will be present at this event are Dade County Federal Credit Union, New York Life, University of Phoenix, Triumph Professional Staffing, South Florida Chamber of Commerce and Pegasus International.

For those persons wishing to a register, as well as, employers planning to participate, visit online at www.accessmiamijobs.com and click on the Mayor's Career Fair icon.
