City of Miami Celebrates Fourth Annual Miami Fishing Tournament 2010

(Miami, Florida) - The City of Miami, in partnership with Kids in Action, a newly established non-profit organization dedicated to helping autistic children, will host the fourth annual Inter City Tire Miami Fishing Tournament on Saturday, August 14, 2010, at the City's Miamarina located downtown at Bayside Marketplace at 401 Biscayne Boulevard.

The Tournament offers affordable team entry fees ($275 per 4 member team before August 9, 2010 – then $325 per team); team and individual prizes in a variety of categories; and free Tournament day tie-ups at Miamarina for team vessels. This is a one-day tournament, starting at 7 a.m. with lines out at 3 p.m. Tournament rules and a team entry form can be found at www.miamifishingtournament.org, or by calling Miamarina at 305-579-6955 or Dinner Key Marina at 305-579-6950.

The City of Miami's municipally operated marinas are Miamarina at Bayside, 401 Biscayne Boulevard (downtown); Marine Stadium Marina, 3501 Rickenbacker Causeway (Virginia Key); and Dinner Key Marina, 3400 Pan American Drive (Coconut Grove) and the Dinner Key Mooring Facility located just offshore from Dinner Key Marina. Miamarina and Dinner Key Marina have been designated "Clean Marinas" by the Florida Department of Environmental Protection for their efforts to reduce water pollution, and the City will have available information on how boaters can help to improve the quality of Florida's waters and natural resources.
