ONE BULLET KILLS THE PARTY!

-Elected officials, law enforcement agencies and the Community Relations Board (CRB) kick off a strong public awareness campaign-

(Miami, FL June 25, 2010)--City of Miami Mayor Tomas P. Regalado, along with Commissioner Richard P. Dunn II, District 5, Miami-Dade County Commissioner Audrey Edmonson, Miami Dade State Attorney Katherine Fernandez Rundle, City of Miami Police Chief Miguel Exposito, Chief Richard Masten, Crime Stoppers and the City of Miami Community Relations Board (CRB), will hold a Press Conference, on Monday, June 28, 2010, 10:00 am, to announce the launching of a public awareness campaign entitled ONE BULLET KILLS THE PARTY! The Press Conference will take place at Sherdavia Jenkins Peace Park, 6198 NW 12 Avenue.

In a united effort, concerned elected officials, law enforcement agencies and community activists are voicing a strong message to the community ahead of the upcoming Fourth of July holiday, warning residents and visitors alike, of the dangers of firing celebratory gun shots in the air and the possibility of killing an innocent bystander.

Different incidents with stray bullets throughout the years made officials realize they had to launch a very aggressive awareness crusade, with the campaign message displayed on bus benches and billboards, to remind the whole community that ONE BULLET KILLS THE PARTY!

"We need to impress on the community that people do get hurt by stray bullets," commented Mayor Regalado. "We can celebrate and also be safe; it only takes one bullet to kill the party."
